Summary: This is frosty the snowman but in a Halloween Version. This is my first post and i hope you enjoy it

Michael the burning man

This is my first fan fiction and I got this idea when looking at the original Halloween 2 when Michael was on fire and walking out of the exploded hospital room. Please review (rather good or bad) and please tell me what you think. (It's better if you sing it in the frosty theme)

Michael the burning man

_Michael the burning man was as evil as he could be _

_With a killer knife and a white full mask and a jumpsuit covered with blood _

_Michael, the burning man is the boogeyman they say _

_He's made of pure evil, but everybody knows that Halloween's his day _

There must have been some magic in hi evil rotten core

_Foe when Loomis tried to kill him once, he just got back up and walked _

_Oh, Michael, the burning man was as evil as he could be _

_And the children say he can kill his prey just as fast as you or me _

_Thumpty thump thump, thumpty thump thump look at Michael go _

_Thumpty thump thump, thumpty thump thump, into the fields of Haddonfield_

_Michael, the burning man, knew that Loomis was after him so he decided to do a few more kills before he tears Loomis limb from limb

_Down in Haddonfield with a butcher knife in his hand _

_Walking here and there and around the square, thinking they know they can't kill me _

_He followed some teenagers down the streets and ran right to a cop

_And paused just for a moment when he stabbed the knife through his heart _

_For Michael the burning man, knew that Laurie was no where near_

_So he walked away, thinking you better pray, because I'll be back again next year_

So that's the song, hope you enjoyed it and please review rather good or bad and tell me what you think
